JOIN A TEAM OF THRIVING
PERSONAL STYLISTS & BUSINESS PROFESSIONALS

Who?

Who are we? Something quite unique. We are a fun, friendly team of style professionals who have recognised the power of working together to support, inspire, encourage and empower each other and our clients. Celebrating each other's successes along the way and helping each other grow. As a growing business we adopt the mindset of helping others be the best they can be, this includes individuals in the styling industry whether they have trained with us or elsewhere. Our business is all-inclusive and we have a wealth of individuals who take pride in being part of our team. We welcome any professional in the personal styling and related industries to join our thriving community for many opportunities, and if you join at the same time as training with us, you'll receive a discount on your course.

What?

What do we do? We help you grow your business, we support each other, we share our knowledge, we mentor those in need. We give you access to an empowering community and the opportunity to further your skills in your business.

ALEX

“I am a part of the brilliant Stylist community which I have found to be an invaluable support to me whilst growing my business. It's full of inspirational and supportive stylists, spurring each other on!!”

When?

When you join our community you will:

- Be invited to our interactive Facebook Group where every single month there will be a calendar of exclusive workshops and interactive sessions created especially for Personal Stylists to help support your business, personal growth and development.
- Have the opportunity to be involved with collaborative opportunities and receive a discount on all TiCC courses, training and events.
- Be invited to feature in our stylist directory, in our blogs and on our social media platforms.
- Be part of a community who believe in collaboration over competition to ask questions, and get support including access to regular national and regional meet-ups.

“
The best thing I ever did was join this group.

Why?

Why choose our community? Working independently can be daunting and lonely; it's difficult to know who to trust and how to build support around your own business. Our community offers support, growth, a wider skill set, networking, workshops, mentoring, access to highly skilled professionals and some of the nicest people you can work with in the industry. Our motto is 'Collaboration over Competition' - we are genuinely here to help your business develop and grow whilst giving you a platform of support and empowerment. We bring experts into our members community every single month to talk about topics focused on business and personal growth and development. Our calendar also includes Power Hour sessions with TiCC founder Emmeline Stevens to answer all your questions and share ideas and suggestions for you each month. All our members have access to this type of content every single month.

How?

How can I join? We have three different member types to choose from depending on the level of support you need; Team Member, Business Member and Business Plus Member. We have a wealth of knowledge and experience within our team and at each membership level, so you can start learning and growing your business instantly. Our business members also have the option to receive mentoring from more experienced stylists or our specially chosen Business Coaches who understand your industry and the unique challenges they face. Whichever membership level you choose, you can switch at any time to suit your changing needs:
