

Style & Shape

INFORMATION SHEET

Understanding style personality is the core of what you do and how successful you might be as a stylist, which is why we focus on helping you understand how to identify different personality types, and how to work with them.

With much confusion on the market about different body shape types and how to dress them, our focus on body shapes and proportions helps you understand how to take your clients thinking outside of the box, especially when she doesn't fit in to just one.

Within this course, you'll learn about style and shape of the female form. You'll gain extensive learning in females body shapes, proportions and style personalities to develop your skills as a personal stylist or image consultant.

Who

This one day course is for adults of all levels, from any background or experience - for beginners with no previous knowledge to those who wish to brush up their styling skills and education in body shapes to underpin their future styling sessions.

How
